This is a two story high, four bay wide, flat roofed building with running bond brick foundation and facade. The first story has two flat doors with transoms, one at the extreme left and the other at the extreme right of the building. The remainder of the first story facade is given over to a large plate glass store window with a sill and lintel of brick headers. The second story is nearly completely spanned by six adjacent 16 light, metal encased windows. The building is otherwise enlivened by a commercial sign between the first and second story fenestration.
